Lincoln sex offender sentenced to 4-8 years

A former Lincoln Boy Scout leader was declared a mentally disordered sex offender by Lancaster County District Court Judge Donald E. Endacott and sentenced Thursday to four to eight years in the Lincoln Regional Center and prison.

Douglas Shockley, 27, 3013 S St., pleaded no contest in November to a charge of attempted first-degree sexual assault in a plea agreement with the Lancaster County attorney's office. He originally had been charged with first-degree sexual assault.

Shockley assaulted a 14-year-old boy he had met through Boy Scouts, police said. He will be treated in the LRC's Mentally Disordered Sex Offender program until doctors determine he has received maximum benefit from treatment, then he will serve the rest of his sentence at the Lincoln Correctional Center.

CONF013372

Boy Scout leader facing a charge of sexual assault

A Lincoln man was charged in Lancaster County Court Tuesday with sexual assault on a child for allegedly assaulting a 14-year-old boy he had befriended through various youth programs.

Douglas Shockley, 27, 3013 S St., allegedly sexually assaulted the boy on more than one occasion during the past year, said Deputy County Attorney John Colborn.

Shockley, a Boy Scout leader, became acquainted with the youth through Scouting and other youth programs. The youth spent several nights at the Shockley home and the alleged assault occurred there, Colborn said.

Shockley was released on his own recognizance by Judge Jack Lindner with the provision Shockley have no contact with children, according to court records.

Dear Mr. Shockley,

After careful review, we have decided that your registration with the Boy Scouts of America should be suspended. We are therefore compelled to request that you sever any relations that you may have with the Boy Scouts of America. A refund of your registration fee is enclosed.

You should understand that BSA membership registration is a privilege and is not automatically granted to everyone who applies. We reserve the right to suspend registration whenever there is a concern that an individual may not meet the high standards of membership which the BSA seeks to provide for American youth.

If you wish to have this decision reviewed by a council review committee, please write to me, explaining your version of the facts supporting your claim that your registration as a BSA member should be reinstated.

Sincerely yours,

President

Dear Jerry:

We received word in the middle of July concerning the above-named individual. It was indicated that he had been arrested and charged with child sexual abuse. Apparently, he was Scoutmaster of Troop 51 - Presbyterian Church in Lincoln, Nebraska.

I am enclosing a Confidential Record Sheet which I would like to have completed so we may identify Mr. Shockley should he attempt registration in some other location. We would also like to have any other material which you presently have which would help substantiate our refusal of registration attempts.

Please send us any statements from individuals, newspaper clippings, or court records which would help us to build a file and protect the youth of America.

Thank you for your help.
